Overview

30 short hadiths in Urdu and English were done with translation, reference and interesting stories/ videos. Age 5+ to 12 yrs.

Goals

Our goal is to teach hadiths with long term memory. And to rebuild a love for Prophet Muhammad SAW in the hearts of our children.

Specifications

These all hadiths are in attractive graphics. These all hadiths are authentic and taken from sahih books. To make it more easy, the topic is also highlighted with hadith translation. Every topic has a story we did in this session. Stories are available in pdf and youtube videos. Visit my page to subscribe to my website and channels.

Milestones

I. Activity at home

June 2019 summer vacation. I started to teach short hadiths to my kids at home.

We started as a story time. Whiteboard was used to write hadith, code and translation. Then after a little discussion an interesting story would be told to kids. And then they wrote these hadiths into their Alkitab-ul-Hadith.(Children's personal journal).

II. Group work.

My online students and some mothers asked me to share this online for their kids. So I started to make videos of all hadiths with stories. I started to share 1 hadith weekly. And kids were also sharing their hadiths activities in my group.so we completed these hadiths in 30 weeks. You can join our group to learn and teach hadiths where I will keep sharing hadith weekly.

Tips to teach.

1. Make a small journal,handbook(sketchbook)
2. Write the title cover of Alkitab-ul-hadith and the name of the child.
3. Use my hadith video(Urdu/English) or write this hadith yourself at white board.
4. Watch videos for the story or tell stories yourself (stories would be according to topic. Visit my site for written stories)
5. Ask your child to write hadith into their book.
6. Design the book and hadith with colors.
7. Revise hadiths many times and try to memorise. According to the age of children.
8. For the children under 8, write hadiths yourself in their book and ask them to color. During this they will repeat hadiths to understand it.
